Kerr Compares Municipal Services Under Local And County Government

Leslie Kerr, member of the and revenue sub-committee of the committee for Campbell incorp on, presented the following report comparing municipal services er county and local government. Text of the report follows.

It is deemed advisable to especial attention to a matter of moment and of vital importance every resident of Campbell, namely —muncipal type services such police and fire protection, traffic control, sewer and street main- nce, indigent relief and other bene- fits classified as city services.

The League of California ies is sponsoring a State enactment designed to prevent the counti oard of supervisors from furnishing municipal type services to an u corporated community like Campbell, unless all costs of such service re paid by the areas served. And, in addition, the proposed enactm will undoubtedly provide authority for the board to levy additiona xes upon all taxable property located within the area services.

In the event that the Leag is successful, and there seems to be a general opinion that it will then the people of Campbell must of necessity choose whether to incorporate as an independent city; (2) annex to either Santa Clar or San Jose; (3) pay a greater share of the county taxes; or, (4) pa icipate in or institute diverse special districts, such as a "Police Dis ict," etc.

As a corporate entity, the people of Campbell will have autono- mous authority to select all cit officials and employees; to enact city ordinances, to levy and collect roperty taxes, license and permit fees; grant franchises; to furnish or provide desired city-services; and, will be entitled to receive substan al amounts of monies from the State and Federal governments in e way of tax refunds, special grants, etc. And, as a direct result incorporation, users of domestic gas and electricity will be entitled to a reduction in PG&E rates varying from $9.00 to $25.32 per annum, depending on rate of consumption and on neighborhood location.

Under annexation, the people of Campbell will forfeit all rights and benefits as enumerated in the preceding paragraph; will be sub- ordinate to and dependent on pleasure and action of an entrenched management; will be required to pay additional taxes and various service fees; will assume a portion of the bonded indebtedness of the city to which annexed; will not be assured of receiving any particular benefit or service; and, the favored city will dictate the terms of the annexation agreement, if any. To those who may suspect writer bias or prejudice herein, it is suggested that you contact "old-timer" resi- dents of annexed communities.

In the event the residents of Campbell resolve to pay a greater portion of the county expenses, it is a certainty that (1) no State or Federal subventions and grants will be received; (2) they will have no voice in or choice of local management; and, (3) the county board of supervisors will have complete jurisdiction in all matters relating to services furnished or to be supplied and resulting charges to cover costs thereof. There is also the probability that some of the charges will be in excess of an actual cost if service was supplied under city control and management. In fact, Campbell will remain a rural community and will suffer the consequences of being governed accordingly.

It is, of course, possible to secure some municipal type services without resorting to either incorporation or annexation. The Campbell fire, lighting, and sanitary districts are examples. But, in doing so, an unincorporated community will not have control where the county board of supervisors appoint the directorate of such special tax assessment districts, neither will it be entitled to receive any governmental aid. All costs of installation, maintenance, and operation will be paid for through levies of additional taxes—there will be no compensating return of revenue that can be used to defray any portion of the resulting expenses.

The following table shows the actual tax levies for year ending June 30, 1952:

	Campbell Tax Code Dist.	San Jose Code	Santa Clara Code
Tax assessment districts	62—5	8—1	7—0
County rate	$1.870	$1.870	$1.870
County library fund	.030	——	——
School rate	2.593	2.960	2.302
City rate	——	1.774	2.204
Total rate	4.493	6.604	6.376
Special Districts:
Campbell light *	.223	——	——
Campbell fire *	.330	——	——
West Valley hospital	.060	——	——
Total rate	5.106	6.604	6.376
Water conservation (land value only)	.800	.800	.800
Sanitary District No. 4 (land and imp.)	.240	——	——
Total county	6.146	7.404	7.176
Campbell sanitary (separate bill(*	.100	——	——
Grand total rate	6.246	7.404	7.176
Maximum additional rate (xx)	.347	——	——
Total city rate	6.593	7.404	7.176

NOTE: The three items marked with an asterisk (*) are municipal type taxes ,the sum of which is $0.653. These taxes are now being collected and used by the county to maintain the special districts as listed. In the event of incorporation, such taxes will be collected by the city of Campbell and used to maintain said districts. Thus the combined rate of $0.653 will then be classified as a part of the "city tax rate." The item of $0.347 (xx) is merely the difference between a maximum legal city tax rate of $1.00 and $0.653. It represents the amount of additional taxes that could be added to the present tax in order to produce a legal maximum city rate of $1.00 per $100 of assessed valuation.

Reliance in tax rate comparisons will generally produce fallacious results. A lower tax rate does not necessarily indicate any actual reduction in the amount of taxes to be paid. In fact, it has become the mode for taxing authorities to raise the assessment value and maintain the rate level, thus lulling the unwary taxpayer into a feeling that all is well and as it should be.

For example: A home in Campbell was assessed at $3,000; the value was reassessed to $3830, an increase of approximately 28 per cent. The outside county rate for 1950-51 was $2.09 and the 1051-52 rate is $1.90, a decrease of nearly 10 percent. Naturally the home owner would reasonably expect a $5.70 reduction in his property taxes, but, when he received the 1951-5 tax bill finds he will have to pay an additional county tax of $15.77. Manifestly rate comparisons under such circumstances are fraudulent in character.

The present-day theory prevailing in Santa Clara County (probably even more generally) is that property values for taxation purposes should be evaluated on an equalization basis. This method is a process of rendering uniform all valuations for a single street, particular neighborhood or specific portion thereof. Here is a case at hand and result:

Home site assessed at $450 on an area basis. Reassessed on an equalization basis of front footage at $1,230 with $50 added to the personal property value, an increase of 170 and 33 percent respectively. Result is that home owner is compelled to pay $50.45 additional taxes for 1951-52 under the Campbell rates indicated in tabulation above. Quite an additional burden for a superannuated veteran to assume who is compelled to meet all obligations from a low and fixed income.

No, I am NOT complaining of or criticizing any action taken by the local tax appraiser. The fault and the responsibility rests entirely with local property owners who permit such conditions to exist. And, unless they change their economic thinking and take some interest in local affairs, this community is headed straight for a rude awakening.

EDITORIAL

So much has been said about the "American Right" to vote and the duty of the citizen to participate in choosing his form of government and the individuals to govern him that it hardly seems necessary to re-emphasize the need for registering and voting in the coming election. Yet it has been true in every election in the past that large numbers of citizens have been unable to express their opinions because they have neglected to register.

L. W. Harmon, general chairman of the incorporation committee, stated this week that the issue of approval or disapproval of incorporation for Campbell now lies directly in the hands of the people. Now that the preliminary work has been completed and the date of election has been set, the residents themselves will have the last word on the question. It is not enough t oactively support or oppose such a question. One more duty remains for those who will be most affected by the incorporation of Campbell—the duty of registering and voting.

According to law, residents of the area in question must be registered at least 54 days before the date of the election or on or before January 17. Those who did not vote in the last primary or general election or those who have changed their place of residence after they last voted must register again for the election.

There is still another incentive for the citzens of the area to register for the election. For each man and woman registered for the March election, the state will allot $19.68 to the city of Campbell in state subventions and grants. These funds will be returned to the city of Campbell from state gas taxes and motor vehicle taxes.

Normally the state would allot such an amount in accordance with the population of the city, but since no official population figures are available for the city of Campbell, the state will use the number of registered voters and multiply the figure by three to approximate the population of the area.

This means that the residents of Campbell have a chance to earn more than nineteen dollars for the city merely by exercising their right to vote. Seldom is such a bonus given to citizens for exercising their rights.

Much has been said about civic pride and cooperation of individuals to build communities. No better chance has ever been presented to the citizens of any community to help their city and their way of life than is presented in the "bonus" which Campbell will receive for every citizen who is registered on or before January 17. It has been said in Campbell, as it has in all communities and cities from the smallest to the largest, that a town cannot progress unless those who are in power "do something." This is your chance to "do something." You do not have to wait for the approval of a committee head or a nod from the chosen few. You as an individual can place Campbell in a position for even greater progress by registering to vote in the incorporation election.

INCORPORATION CHAIRMAN URGES RESIDENTS TO REGISTER BEFORE DEADLINE ON JANUARY 17, 1952

L. W. Harmon, general chairman of the committee for Campbell incorporation, issued an appeal this week for all eligible residents of the area to register for the special incorporation election before the January 17 registration deadline. Harmon emphasized the fact that all persons, whether they are for or against the move, should register so that they can voice their opinions in the special election to be held March 11. "We hope to impress all the residents of the area of the importance of voicing their opinions in the coming election," he said. "In order to do this, they must be registered at least 54 days before the date of the election or on or before January 17." He pointed out that a straw vote was taken before incorporation proceedings were started in order to test the feeling of the community on the subject. "Results of this poll favored incorporation by a six to one majority," he continued. "Now the question of approval or disapproval of the move is directly in the hands of the voters. It is their duty to approve or disapprove the measure by voting at the coming election."

Bert Legg, deputy chairman of the committee for Campbell incorporation announced yesterday that a registration trailer will visit portions of the area each night starting on Monday, January 7. Ellen Lanphear will be on hand to register all those desiring it. Legg stated that residents will be informed when the trailer will be in their vicinity, both by notice through the mail and by a call from one of the registration group members. Legg emphasized the fact that both those for incorporation and those against it will benefit by insuring their eligibility to vote through registration. Guy E. Farley, 251 E. Campbell Avenue, is also authorized to register residents of the area.

A spokesman for the taxation and revenue sub-committee stated that the state of California will return more than $19.00 in subventions and grants for every registered voter in the community should the incorporation move succeed. "This is a chance for the citizens of the community to make additional revenue for their city merely by exercising their right to vote," he said.

Noon of January 31 is the deadline for candidates for any of the seven city offices to file. Candi-

Planners Clash On Shopping Center Issues

The Santa Clara County Planning Commission crossed swords Wednesday with the Elliott Corporation of Los Gatos and Adolph Leibfritz, when they initiated a move to rezone to residential property, land owned by both parties on the San Jose-Los Gatos Road. The commission had approved a rezoning of both pieces of property to commercial approximately a year ago, but felt that inasmuch as no development had taken place since the original change, that a residential zoning would be more beneficial to the area. The Elliott Corporation had intended to build a shopping center on the San Jose-Los Gaos Road at Elliott Drive, but claimed that reluctance of merchants to engage in such a move and government restrictions of materials had delayed construction. Adolph Leibfritz had planned a shopping center at the intersection of the San Jose-Los Gatos Road and the Almaden Road, but Leibfritz stated before the board that he had delayed construction because he felt that the nearness of the proposed Elliott shopping cener would make present development unwise. Leibfritz said that he felt that the community would not support two shopping centers.

In other business, the planners gave their approval to the site for the Hamilton Avenue school to be located on Hamilton near Central Avenues. The commision had previously delayed approval on the grounds that proposed extension of the Los Gatos-Santa Cruz highway might bring traffic too close to the school. The commission also approved application of John Tripoli for a use permit to maintain two horses on the northwesterly side of Saratoga Avenue between Cox Avenue and Bucknall Road and adjusted provisions in the zoning ordinance to allow an addition to a dwelling owned by John B. Clayton and located on the San Jose-Los Gatos Road between Casey Road and Jewell Drive.

MORELAND SCHOOL CAFETERIA IS READY FOR USE BY CHILDREN

Completion of the Moreland school cafeteria and multi-use room was announced this week by district superintendent Mrs. Gussie Baker. Mrs. Baker stated that the cafeteria will start serving its first meals on January 7 when students will return to school from their Christmas vacation. The cafeteria is designed to serve 230 students at each sitting and split noon hours will be utilized so that all students will have a chance to make use of the facilities.

A charge of $1.00 per week or 25 cents per meal will be made and weekly tickets will go on sale Monday. The cafeteria will serve meals following the requirements of the state school lunch plan and will be subject to inspections by both state and federal dieticians. Typical meals will include milk, bread and butter, fruit and a main hot dish.

Feature of the new cafeteria will be benches and tables which fold into the wall so that the room may be used for other purposes.

The cafeteria, which will be operated on a non-profit basis, will employ two full-time cooks, Mrs. Marian Hiatt and Mrs. Marian Pankoski, and two part-time workers, Mrs. Ethel Beaudin and Mrs. Adelaide Zierera. Portions of the cost of operation will be borne by the district.

Mrs. Baker stated that the school intends to continue the $1.00 charge for five meals a week for the entire school year unless rising cost of food forces an increase.

JayCees Plan To Present Mystery Program

Plans are progressing for the Campbell Junior Chamber of Commerce's mystery program to be presented in the near future. Only hint which he gave of the nature of the program was the comment that they are "Shooting at Stars."

CAMPBELL MERCHANTS OPTIMISTIC ABOUT BUSINESS DURING 1952

A Press survey this week revealed that Campbell merchants and businessmen are predicting an increase in business during 1952. With but a few exceptions, merchants in a variety of businesses had an optimistic outlook for the new year.

Greatest predictions for increased business came from Campbell realtors, appliance and homeware dealers. Realtors felt that national conditions have generally reached a more stable point than reflected in the year just past. An increase in population due to anticipated opening of greater defense work also added to their convictions. Appliance dealers felt, on the whole, that business was due for a sharp upswing barring exceptionally tight governmental restrictions on materials. Continuation of the increase in population and availability of more money during the year influenced many of the forecasts.

Grocers also formed the opinion that volume would be up during the new year. The possibility of increased spending due to anticipated greater defense work was, in some cases, cited as the main reason for expecting a better year.

In the field of drugs and various sundry items, dealers showed mixed feelings with some predicting a better year because of the increased population trend and others predicting sales to remain about the same or slightly lower than in 1951.

Service station operators questioned stated that they believed volume would be up during the coming year, but related fields in the automotive supply industry were apprehensive over governmental restrictions cutting down on the amount of saleable merchandise. Some expressed the opinion that busines would hold up providing government cuts in critical material were not too drastic.

Clothing houses were of mixed opinions as to the outcome of business during 1952, with some feeling that more money in circulation and the promise of more employment would bring volume to greater heights, while others felt that the year would foresee a tightening up of funds and a reduction in the amount of business transactions.

Many merchants stated th cooperative efforts to keep mo buying in Campbell had helpe raise the 1951 business leve and felt that continued effort would keep even greater trad at home.

In general, merchants reflec the views that the increasing p ulation and the availability greater money through anticipated increase in defense employment would affect conditions favorably. Apprehension of the national and international situations was indicated but many expressed the opinion that the national elections and acceptance of the present conditions in world affairs would serve to stimulate business.

Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The assessed valuation of all taxable property in the District according to the 1951-52 Equalized Assessment Roll is $18,080,820.00 (including the area commonly known as Bradley Manor No. 3). Legal proceedings are now pending involving the validity of the annexation by the City of San Jose of Bradley Manor No. 3 area. The assessed valuation of taxable property within Bradley Manor No. 3 area is $2,002,430.00. If it is finally determined by the Courts that Bradley Manor No. 3 area was legally annexed to the City of San Jose, said area upon such annexation by operation of law ceased to be a part of the Campbell Union School District and the assessed valuation of taxable property in the District would be reduced to $16,078,390.00. In the opinion of bond counsel the legal proceedings questioning the validity of the annexation of Bradley Manor No. 3 area to the City of San Jose do not affect the legality of the bonds as herein set forth, but the assessed valuation of all taxable property in the District upon which taxes may be levied for the payment of principal and interest of the bonds may be reduced depending upon the outcome of said litigation. The amount of bonds previously issued, and which will be outstanding as of January 21, 1952, the date of sale, is $634,000.00.

Campbell Union School District has been acting as a school district under the laws of the State of California continuously since July 1, 1920.

DATED: December 31, 1951.

After a lull of two weeks, the Buc cagers meet the Santa Cruz five. The locals found themselves on the short end of 56-18 score when they last met Santa Cruz, and while their following game with Lincoln showed a vastly improved squad, they will probably be hard put to keep up with their fast-scoring opponents from beachland.

The lightweights fared a little better in their last meeting with Santa Cruz, whipping them by a 38-30 score. We'll look for Campbell to take this tilt, but not without a hard fight.

While we suspected that we might be taking a flier when we predicted a Stanford win in the Rose Bowl, we didn't expect to crash into the side of the mountain. With all due respect to the Big Ten representatives, we don't believe that the high score was entirely the fault of Illinois. When the loss of Kerkorian shook the Indians, they just seemed to fall apart at the seams.

While it's still a little too early in the season for any indicative reports, the Cefalu Brothers down at the local sport shop say that steelheads seem to be way off this year. Better results should be forthcoming after the season gets underway, however.

Scouts Hold Christmas Program Here

Members of San Tomas Boy Scout Troop 30 recently enjoyed a Christmas program at the San Tomas school. Guest of honor was Robert McClasky of the Campbell Red Cross, who presented the troop with a first aid kit and two blankets from Joaquin Payne, head of the Campbell Red Cross. Equipment will be used for the troop mobilization unit.

Promotions were awarded by Scoutmaster Harry Hunter to Ned Gault, junior assistant scoutmaster; George Snyder, troop bugler; Rici Shuart, troop scribe; David Jiminez, tenderfoot; Jim Coiner, tenderfoot; Donald Hunter, second class and assistant patrol leader Kodiak patrol; Chester Fry, two year pin ,and Jerry Lawrence, patrol leader and two year pin. Committeemen Dave Swan and Eric Shuart received pins and Bill Crook and Phil Geringer were given their badges. Paul Ziegler received his one year pin and assistant scoutmaster Ken Wilson and scoutmaster Harry Hunter were presented with two year pins.

Motor Vehicle Registration Slips Due December 26

Five million potential registration cards were maled to motor vehicle owners in California on the day after Christmas.

This report was submitted to Governor Earl Warren by A. H. Henderson, State Director of Motor Vehicles, at the monthly meeting of the Governor's Council this week.

The director stated that the annual vehicle regisration renewal period will extend from Wednesday, January 2, 1952, through Monday, February 4, 1952. Service will be available at all branch offices of the Department of Motor Vehicles from 8 to 5, Mondays through Fridays, and 8 to 12 on Saturdays, throughout the renewal period. Travelling crews of State Motor Vehicle representatives will be sent from Sacramento and Los Angeles to serve certain areas where there are no permanent offices of the department. Schedules of such visits will be widely publicized in advance, the director said.

Renewal service in banks will be expanded to include commercial as well as private passenger vehicles, Henderson reported. The 50 bank stations in populous centers throughout the state, will be authorized to handle renewals on potential registration cards only. Automobile clubs also offer renewal service to their members. The law authorizing use of vehicle license plates for five-year periods is now in effect, and tabs will be issued to make the 1951 plates valid for continued use.

"We are reminding car owners to be on the lookout for the potential registration cards in the week after Christmas," Henderson stated, "and we are urging that these cards should not be confused with the bulk of holiday mail. The 'potential' offers by far the most convenient method of renewal that has been devised. We recommend that the process be handled by personal visit, not through the mail. We ask that all owner check their potential cards closely for accuracy. If anyone has disposed of the vehicle described on the card he receives, he is requested to destroy the card, as it is of no value to anyone.

"We are also reminding people that if they do not receive a potential registration card for any reason, they may use their 1951 white registration slips, now displayed in their cars, for renewal."

The advantage of the potential, as Henderson explained it, is that when the vehicle owner goes to the Department's office, he has in his possession the document that is "potentially" his new registration card. On payment of the fees indcated on the card, the potential is validated in his presence, the new tabs are delivered to him, and the owner leaves the office with his actual registration card for the new year.

The director also reported that owners applying for transfer of previously registered vehicles in the month of December, are required by a new law to pay full registration and license fees for the coming year, as well as any 1951 fees due. This will reduce the total number of applicants in the renewal period by 150,000 to 200,000 persons, the director estimated.

Arizona produced approximately 15 percent of all copper produced in the entire world in 1950.

MARCH OF DIMES CAMPAIGN TO START WITH RETURN OF STUDENTS

The 1952 March of Dimes will start in the Campbell area next Monday with the return of high school students from their Christmas vacation. As has become the custom in the past, the seven members of the student council of Campbell Union High school will direct the activities of the drive. While the March of Dimes campaign started in most parts of the county last Wednesday, the Campbell area drive is being delayed until students return to school.

The seven member student council will have complete charge of the drive in all Campbell high school district areas with the exception of the Burbank district, which is being handled by San Jose groups. Members will make arrangements for solicitations in the various schools, take charge of placing containers in the stores of the area, and arrange special campaigns in addition to conducting a campaign in the high school.

While the county goal has been set at $75,000, goals for the Campbell area have not yet been announced. Indications are that the high school students will attempt to exceed their 1951 total of $1700, however. The drive has been extended from its usual two week period to January 31 to cover the increased need for funds, but a spokesman for the local students stated that the Campbell campaign may be extended an additional week because of the tardiness of the opening of the drive in this area.

MOVEMENT AFOOT TO INCORPORATE PORTIONS OF CAMBRIAN DISTRICT

Reliable observers reported this week that a movement is afoot to incorporate portions of the Cambrian district. The move, which is being fostered by several interested businessmen, realtors, attorneys and residents of the area, has been under discussion in several meetings. Legal preparation of the move is already being studied by several attorneys beloning to the group and tentative boundaries have been outlined. Present indications are that the group expects to circulate incorporation petitions this summer.

Tentative boundaries are bordered by Casey Road on the north, the Los Gatos Creek on the west, and Blossom Hill Road on the south. Eastern boundaries are not yet determined. An alternative northern boundary has also been named as a line running west from Cambrian Corners to the Los Gatos Creek.

The area under study includes an estimated 1700 homes with upwards of 5,000 population. Contemplated subdivisions on Foxworthy Avenue and New Jersey Avenue would add 500 homes by the first part of 1953.

Reasons for the move have been cited as a desire to become a separate incorporated community rather than annex to Los Gatos or join with Campbell in its incorporation movement.

Strong opposition had been revealed earlier in the Campbell incorporation move by residents of the Cambrian area who objected either to incorporation or to joining with Campbell in its efforts to gain incorporation.

Sample ballots will be sent to all registered voters in the area telling what precinct they will vote in and giving the address of the polling place.

Final Rites For Roy R. Gardner

Final services were held in San Jose Wednesday afternoon for Roy R. Gardner, native of Campbell and grandson of William Gardner, well known in the Campbell-Willow Glen area. The Wilow Glen merchant passed away Saturday night after returning from a visit to a friend's home.

He was the husband of Marciele Gardner of San Jose, stepfather of Robert C. Tharratt, brother of Mrs. Dorett Smith, Georgia Gardner, Bennett Gardner, all of San Jose; and William I. Gardner of Vallejo.
